 - iv. The ES Patch Committee said they are looking at taking the old dog patch and putting it on the ABUs
 - v. The NCO Creed Committee is proposing this meeting
 - vi. The Recruiting and Retention Committee said they are working on their last edits of the proposal and should be ready to present next month

3. NEW BUSINESS

- a. NCO Creed Committee Proposal
 - i. This creed will give NCOs a sense of identity, build unity within the NCO ranks, and serve as a tool to guide their leadership development
 - ii. The creed is based on elements of the Army NCO creed and has many references to CAP documents
 - iii. The first paragraph has an opening sentence and states the core values which emphasizes their importance in all the NCO does
 - iv. The second paragraph lists the specific goals that all NCOs should have for how they conduct themselves and it elaborates on the standards that NCOs should hold for themselves
 - v. The third paragraph describes the NCOs' relations to the other members of CAP
 - vi. The fifth paragraph describes how by becoming an NCO you are voluntarily obligating yourself to take on the responsibility that comes with the rank
 - vii. The Cadet Oath and the NCO Creed have two different purposes; The NCO creed creates a sense of unity between NCOs and gives them a standard to live by while the Cadet Oath symbolizes how serious cadets are about coming leaders
